Pastor Neil Montgomery

What Jesus Said About Justice | Luke 9:57-10:20

What Jesus Said

Justice – a working definition: _____ on a physical, personal and spiritual level

What Jesus Did

- The Great _____
- The Great _____ (Matthew 28)
- The Great _____ (Acts 1:7-8)

Doing What Jesus Said

- Justice without Jesus has no _____.
(Luke 10:9, 18-20; Mark 8:36-37; Matt. 25:1-46)
- Jesus without justice has no _____.
(Luke 10:9, Matt. 4:23; Eph. 4:15; I Pet. 2:11-17; I Pet. 3:1)

Elder Candidates

Matt Everroad received Christ as his Savior in college. God used his family to lay the foundation and key friends and a college pastor to share the good news with him. Matt and his wife, Janna, have been attending Scottsdale Bible since they married in 1995 and have three children—Haley, Jack and Charlie. They have served in several volunteer roles, including leadership in the Faithful Families enrichment class and facilitating home fellowships. Matt has served on the local outreach committee and on short-term missions teams to Morocco, Haiti, Tanzania, and the West Bank. He is on the board of MAD Ministries, a Christian urban outreach ministry, and has previously served as the secretary and treasurer of Scottsdale Bible and a board member of the Kuns Foundation, which grants scholarships to seminaries for students pursuing mission work. Matt is a Timothy Leadership Training graduate and earned degrees in both Accounting and Management Information Systems from the University of Arizona. He is currently the Managing Director of Rauch, Hermanson, Everroad & Rentschler, Ltd, a certified public accounting firm.

Bill Cavness accepted Christ at age seven and has been attending Scottsdale Bible since he and his wife, Amy, married in 1992. They have three children—Aly, JD and Will. Bill and Amy served as leaders in the Faithful Families enrichment class for 12 years and have been serving in our High School Ministry since 2009. They have led five student and young adult mission trips to the Czech Republic, and Bill has led two high school teams to Tanzania. Bill and Amy both love investing in the lives of students and young leaders. As a couple, they frequently teach classes at Scottsdale Bible on marriage, parenting, and dating. Bill has completed the Timothy Leadership Training and served on the Elder Board from 2008 to 2012. He earned his BBA in Business Management from Baylor University and currently works as the Director of Operations at Family Matters in Scottsdale.

Jeff Goble invited Christ into his life as Savior at age nine while his family was living in Pittsburgh, PA. He began attending Scottsdale Bible in 1972 at age 12 when his family moved to Arizona. He and his wife, Tracy, have three children—Ryan, Katie (and Derek) Turner. While in college, Jeff served on the Scottsdale Bible high school and junior high staff. He and Tracy were class leaders of the Genesis II enrichment class, and he has served on all of Scottsdale Bible's capital campaigns over the past two decades—taking on the chairmanship of the Joshua Challenge, Enlarge our Hearts, and Compelled by Grace projects. He was a member of the first Timothy Leadership class and has served four times as an elder. He has led numerous small groups and currently mentors young men to find their calling as Christ followers. Jeff earned a BS in Political Science from Arizona State University and is currently a founder, President and CEO of a medical device manufacturing company that provides specialty infusion therapy products and contract manufacturing services for the Life Sciences industry for U.S. and international markets.
