Pastor Jamie Rasmussen

Glory | John 2:1-12

^{ESV} John 2:11 "Jesus...manifested His glory. And His disciples believed in Him."

The Glory of God = "the _____ of God's _____ and
_____"

- I. Jesus shows us His glory in _____.

- II. Jesus shows us His Glory in the _____. (v. 4; see also John 12:23-24)

- III. Jesus shows us His Glory to _____ (v. 11)

"Lord, make me see Your glory in every place." – Michelangelo

¹ On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ² Jesus also was invited to the wedding with His disciples. ³ When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to Him, "They have no wine." ⁴ And Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with Me? My hour has not yet come." ⁵ His mother said to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you." ⁶ Now there were six stone water jars there for the Jewish rites of purification, each holding twenty or thirty gallons. ⁷ Jesus said to the servants, "Fill the jars with water." And they filled them up to the brim. ⁸ And He said to them, "Now draw some out and take it to the master of the feast." So they took it. ⁹ When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom ¹⁰ and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now." ¹¹ This, the first of His signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested His glory. And His disciples believed in Him. ¹² After this He went down to Capernaum, with His mother and His brothers and His disciples, and they stayed there for a few days.

Elder Candidates

Scott Edwards received Christ as Savior at age 9, largely through the ministry of his parents. He earned a B.S. in Business Administration from the University of Arizona, and is currently VP of Operations for Calvis Wyant Luxury Homes in Scottsdale. Scott and his wife Laurie have worshiped at Scottsdale Bible since they married in 1990. He served a previous term on the Elder Board (2010-2014) and currently serves on the construction oversight team for the Compelled by Grace Shea Campus redesign. Scott is a graduate of the Timothy Leadership Training program and served as a TLT discussion group facilitator. He and Laurie currently mentor young families in the Common Ground enrichment class, and Scott previously served on the leadership team for the Faithful Families and Grace Place enrichment classes. He has also served with Phoenix Capernaum Young Life, a ministry dedicated to sharing the gospel with high school youth and young adults with disabilities. Scott and Laurie are blessed with two kids, Tyler and Kelsey (married to Steven Barryman).

Wayne Lehsten invited Christ into his life in his early teens at a Bible camp in Western New York. He sensed God's call into ministry while preaching at his dad's City Rescue Mission in Buffalo, NY, and received his bachelor's from Northwestern College and his M.Div. from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School. For 28 years, Wayne served as the Senior Pastor in Evangelical Free churches in Minnesota, Tucson, New Jersey and Illinois. In 1988, he joined Scottsdale Bible as an Associate Pastor, serving for 20 years. Wayne introduced and led the training of Stephen Ministry, Lay Counseling and Marriage Ministry until his retirement. He is actively involved in mentoring men as well as marriage coaching with his wife, Beverly. They are both Certified Trainers with Intimate Life Ministry. Wayne also volunteers his time with Healing Waters, a group that helps veterans from the VA Hospital learn the art of fly tying and fly fishing. He and Beverly have two daughters, Jennifer, who is at home with the Lord, and, Stephanie, married to Ron Skiba, and three grandchildren, Alice, Andrew and Jennifer.

Dr. Tim Kimmel is the Executive Director of Family Matters—a ministry committed to seeing families transformed through the power of God's grace into instruments of reformation and restoration. He married his high school sweetheart, Darcy, in 1972. He received a B.A. from Bryan College, a Masters of Theology from Dallas Theological Seminary, and a Doctor of Ministry from Phoenix Seminary. Tim and Darcy have four children, who are all married, and six grandchildren.

Tim speaks throughout the U.S. and Europe on how to bring the best out of everyone in your family picture. He's written 13 books and produced numerous small group video curriculums for churches. The Kimmels have served in many capacities at Scottsdale Bible since they began attending in 1976. Tim was Scottsdale Bible's youth pastor from 1976 to 1980, he co-taught the Faithful Families enrichment class for 12 years, and he is the elder liaison to the Family Ministry of Scottsdale Bible. He occasionally fills the pulpit and teaches in the enrichment department in various capacities.
